

Strasbourg
World Capital of Time Policies 2024
& Les Temporelles 2024

NOVEMBER, 28TH & 29TH 2024
AT THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

“Caring for others, caring for ourselves: Towards a Right to
Time in Europe”

European Capital, Capital of Human Rights, Strasbourg has the honor of being “World Capital of Time Policies” in 2024. Two days of debates and meetings to discuss the legitimacy of a right to time to take care of oneself and one’s loved ones, and bring to the European level the challenges of Care and a Right to Time, for a more equitable and social Europe.

PROGRAMME (subject to change)

Please respect the schedule to ensure the smooth running of the event

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28TH

Languages: French, English

3:00pm – 4:00pm: Welcome Coffee at the European Parliament

4:00pm – 4:30pm: Opening by Jeanne Barseghian, Mayor of Strasbourg, and Marina Lafay, Deputy Mayor, City of Strasbourg - President of Tempo Territorial

4:30pm – 6:00pm: Round table “The major challenges of Care in France and Europe”

Participants: Mélissa Camara, Member of the European Parliament, Alexandra Sußmann, Councillor for Social Affairs, Health and Integration (City of Stuttgart), Floriane Varieras, Deputy Mayor for Inclusive City and Solidarity (City of Strasbourg), Marta Junqué, Director of Time Use Initiative (Barcelona), Stecy Yghemonos, Director of Eurocarers (Belgium), Géraldine Dorard, University lecturer (LPPS, Paris) and other participants (to be confirmed)

6:30pm – 7:00pm: Strasbourg by night, stroll along the river (return to Strasbourg city center by boat)
Reception at the City Hall, in the presence of Jeanne Barseghian, Mayor of Strasbourg

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29TH

Languages: French, English

07:45am – 08:45am: Welcome Coffee at the European Parliament

08:45am – 09:30am: Conference / discussion with Hartmut Rosa, sociologist, philosopher and thinker on acceleration in modern society

09:45am – 11:00am: Conference

Children's time: protecting our children from the effects of acceleration

The acceleration of our lifestyles has an impact on children's needs, and tackles the issues of education and health. How can public policies create the time and places they need to grow up and build their relationship with the world?

Speakers: Anne Jeger, clinical psychologist (Switzerland), Elisa Stinus, Coordinator of the Institut infància i adolescència (Barcelona), Clémentine Gavarini, Director of Sine Bussière (Strasbourg) and other speakers (to be confirmed)

11:15am – 12:30pm: Workshops of your choice with experts and testimonials from French and European cities

Workshop 1: Caring for loved ones: family carers – time to protect

The role of informal carers has never been more important in the face of ageing in Europe. Time management has an impact on their well-being and health. The different categories of carers require tailored support solutions where time is essential.

Speakers: Alexandra Sußmann, Councillor for Social Affairs, Health and Integration (City of Stuttgart), Loïc Trabut, demographer (INED, Paris), Christine Haquette, President of the association 2APA (France), Amarantha Bourgeois, director of the association JADE (France)

Workshop 2: Taking care of ourselves: regaining free time

The notion of free time sheds light on social and gender inequalities. Putting time policies at the service of vulnerable populations means thinking about the articulation of time according to their needs. Do new ways of organizing working time help to reduce these inequalities and support caregivers?

Speakers: Jeanne Ganault, Doctorate in sociology (ENS, Paris), Sue O’Grady et Catherine Cox of the organisation Family Carers Ireland (Ireland), Corinne Hooge, in charge of Public Policy Evaluation (Metropolis of Lyon), Mission in charge of Public Policy Evaluation & Service of Human Ressources (Eurometropolis of Strasbourg) and Olivia Barreau, Director of the association Moi et mes enfants (Paris)

12:30pm – 1:45pm: Lunch buffet

2:00pm – 2:30pm: Artistic Interlude

2:30pm – 3:30pm: Discussion “Can Europe take care of the right to time?”

3:30pm – 3:45pm: Closing

Important precautions:

Please arrive 40 minutes before the start of the event to pass through security and collect your name badge.

At the entrance to the building, all participants must present the document (valid passport or identity card) with which you registered online.

See you at the European Parliament : Allée du Printemps, 67000 Strasbourg

If you have any questions or require further information, please contact us :

DAPIE-CapitaleMondialeTemps@strasbourg.eu